THE ATLAS STUDIO

Good ideas need somewhere to go.

Turning imagination into direction.

Research, identity and digital experiences.
Built around people. Made to move ideas forward.

Every project starts with possibility. An idea. A problem. A feeling that something could work better.

Atlas gives that possibility a direction—through research, identity and digital experiences people can understand.

→ A strong idea needs a clear identity.

→ Research should shape what gets made.

→ A useful product needs an intuitive path.

→ Every touchpoint should feel connected.

Imagination is the beginning.
Direction is what makes it real.

Why direction matters: less guesswork, clearer experiences, a more recognisable brand.

01
Clarity
A sharper brief.
A shared starting point.

02
Insight
Real questions.
Better-informed decisions.

03
Identity
A distinct visual language.
A recognisable presence.

04
Usability
Clear journeys.
Purposeful interfaces.

05
Consistency
Connected touchpoints.
One coherent story.

06
Continuity
Useful systems.
Room to keep growing.

Different projects.
The same search for clarity.

From investing tools to community platforms,
logistics websites and visual identities.
A selection of work by Gulafsan Shaheen.

SELECTED WORK / WEBSITE

CTI — A clearer digital front door

From service information to a focused website experience.

VIEW PORTFOLIO

CONTEXT

A logistics business needs a website that makes its offer easy to recognise and explore.

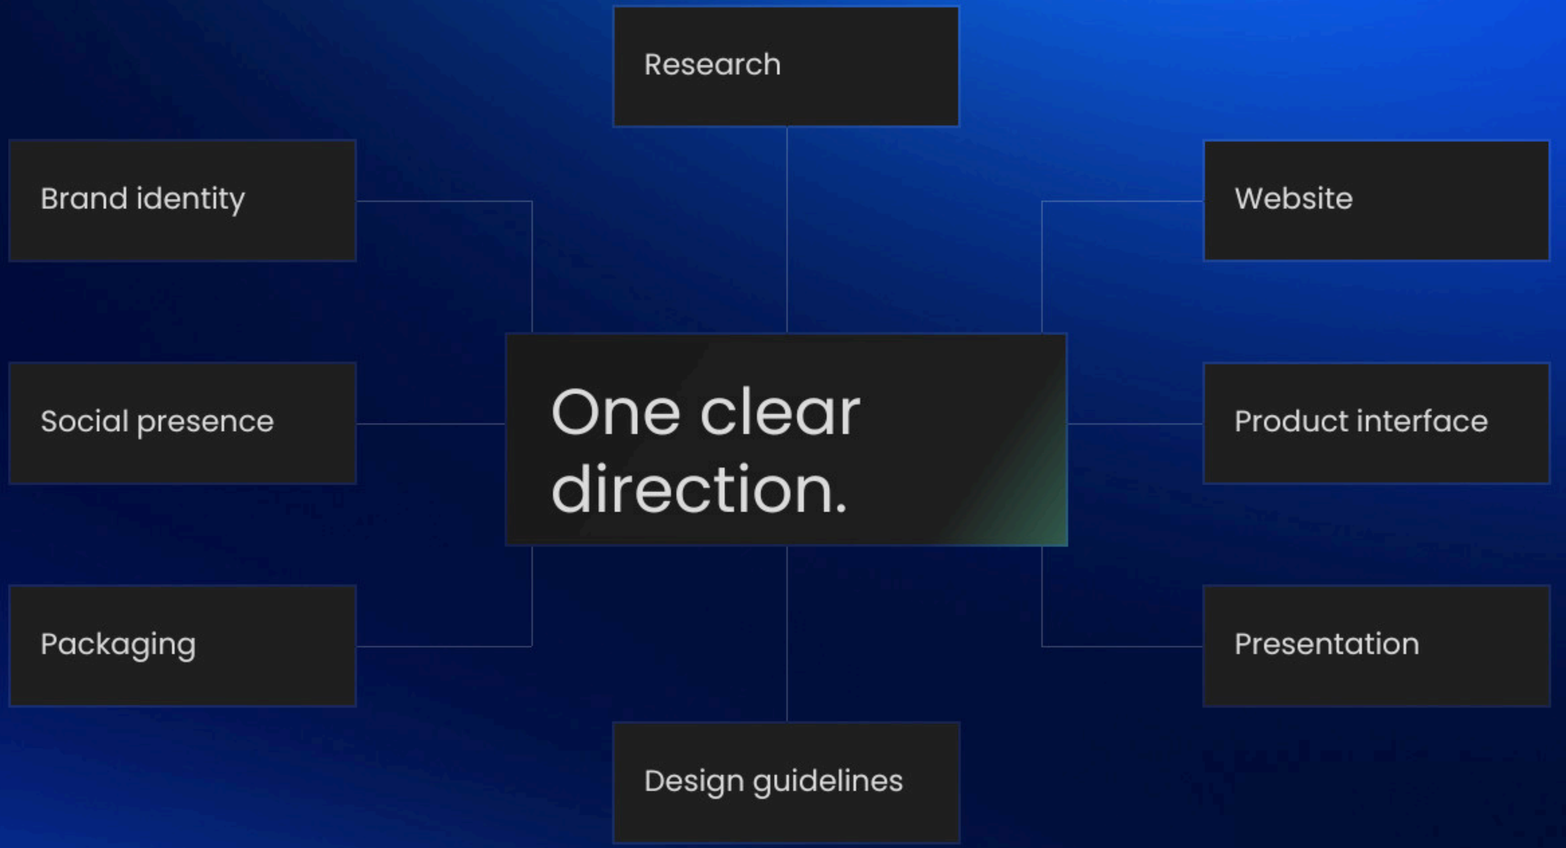

CONTRIBUTION

UX/UI design and development, bringing the service story and enquiry journey into view.

DELIVERABLE

Website design
Interactive prototype

A brand should feel connected, wherever people meet it.

Research sets the direction.
Identity gives it a voice.
Digital design makes it usable.
Every part tells the same story.

SELECTED WORK / PERSONAL PROJECT

JNVKAA — Designing for connection

A social network concept for a shared community.

VIEW PORTFOLIO

CONTEXT

A community platform begins with a simple question: how do people find and stay connected?

CONTRIBUTION

A personal UX/UI project exploring a dedicated social networking experience for JNVKAA.

DELIVERABLE

SELECTED WORK / BRAND IDENTITY

Distinct marks. A recognisable presence.

Giving different ideas
their own visual character.

VIEW IDENTITIES

FOCUS

An identity should offer a clear point of recognition, from the first impression onward.

WORK

A selection of identity explorations for Aksharam, mistiWORK, Watamelon and Xrink.

DELIVERABLES

Identity marks
Visual direction and applications

From open questions to a clear direction.

A considered process for understanding the problem, shaping the idea and making it tangible.

01

Understand the context

Ask what matters. Explore the audience, the business and the problem.

02

Find the direction

Turn research and observations into a focused design brief.

03

Shape the story

Define what the idea should say, how it should feel and why it matters.

04

Design the experience

Develop identity, journeys and interfaces around a coherent idea.

05

Make it tangible

Build prototypes and applications that let the idea be seen and used.

06

Refine the details

Review, learn and sharpen the work for its next step.

Research and design. One connected practice.

The Atlas Studio is the design practice of Gulafsan Shaheen.

An economics background brings a habit of asking why. Research and design turn those questions into form.

Gulafsan Shaheen

Designer / The Atlas Studio

Brand identity, UX research, product and website design. A practice that connects understanding with making.

Research-led

Economics / fieldwork

Research work includes food insecurity, women's work and empowerment, and behaviour in retail investing.

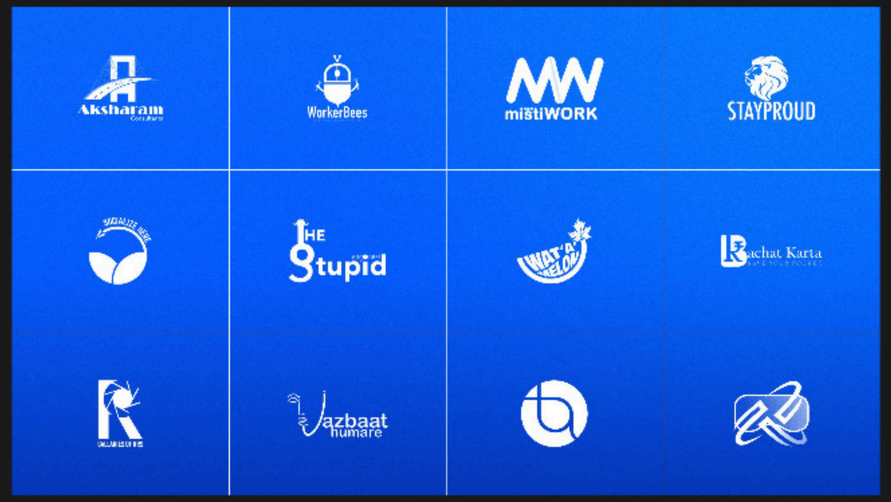

People-centred

Observation / design

People, context and everyday behaviour inform the questions behind the visual and digital work.

A practice expressed through the work.
